FAMOUS BRITISH ADVENTURER BEAR GRYLLS WILL PROMOTE THE "REBUILD UKRAINE" DIRECTION AS A UNITED24 AMBASSADOR

Bear Grylls has been supporting Ukraine from the first day of full-scale invasion. As the first British ambassador of UNITED24 he is coordinating the efforts of british companies and organisations to support Ukraine in different areas, including economy, education, culture and science. His company BecomingX together with Amazon and Accenture are developing educational programme BecomingX Ukraine for ukrainians.

In december 2022 Bear Grylls visited Ukraine together with filming crew. The result of this visit was the film "War Zone: Bear Grylls Meets President Zelenskyy", which was released on March 28 in Great Britain and the United States.

"After a year of resisting the Russian invasion, the support of people like Bear Grylls is very important. Together with other United24 ambassadors, he will help spread the truth about the war and unite the world around support for Ukraine," said Volodymyr Zelenskyy.

UNESCO HAS DEVELOPED A TEN-YEAR PLAN TO RESTORE THE CULTURAL SPHERE IN UKRAINE, WHICH SUFFERED FROM RUSSIAN ARMED AGGRESSION

According to an assessment of UNESCO damages in the field of culture because of the full-scale invasion have already cost 2,4 billion euros of which €1.57 billion is due to the destruction of 248 damaged monuments, and the rest is due to damage to art collections, artists' studios, and the tourism industry. The loss of revenue is about €14 billion, with most of these losses (over €6.5 billion) occurring in Kyiv.

To restore the cultural sphere, UNESCO has developed a 10-year action plan, which was presented by UNESCO Director-General Audrey Azoulay during her visit to Ukraine. She said that in 2023-2026, priority will be given to the inventory, restoration, and protection of one-third of cultural property. This will require more than 2 billion euros. Other funds are planned to be raised from funding sources unrelated to UNESCO's activities.

THE SECOND MEETING OF THE STEERING COMMITTEE OF THE INTERAGENCY DONOR COORDINATION PLATFORM OF UKRAINE TOOK PLACE

The government of Ukraine and the G7 Members of the Steering Committee and representatives from international financial institutions discussed, during the second meeting of the Multi-agency Donor Coordination Platform's Steering Committee for Ukraine, how to best coordinate economic support for Ukraine's immediate financing needs and future economic recovery and reconstruction efforts.

This is possible because of the approval of the 4-year Extended Fund Facility programme from the IMF to support Ukraine, with an overall budget of USD 15.6 billion.

3,3 billion USD from the needed 14,1 billion has already been allocated from the state budget for rapid recovery. To finance almost USD 10.8 billion, the Government of Ukraine aims to cooperate constructively and fruitfully with donors and the private sector.

UKRAINE AND GERMANY EXPAND ENERGY PARTNERSHIP FOR GREEN RECOVERY AND REBUILDING OF UKRAINIAN ENERGY SECTOR

The Minister of Energy in Ukraine Herman Galushenko and The Vice-Chancellor of Germany and the Federal Minister of Economy and Climate Protection of Germany, Robert Habeck, signed a joint statement of intentions in Kyiv, which expands the directions of the German-Ukrainian energy partnership with an emphasis on the "green" recovery and reconstruction of Ukraine's energy industry.

The two sides agreed to expand their partnership in areas such as rebuilding energy infrastructure, promoting the sustainable resilience of the energy sector, and expanding the use of renewable energy sources, including wind, solar, biomass, hydropower, and green hydrogen.

The results of this partnership have already been implemented in Ukraine. For example, a heat pump and a hybrid solar station were installed in a healthcare facility in the village of Horenka (Bucha district, Kyiv region). Today, it saves up to 60% of electricity and eliminates the use of gas for heating. A hospital in Zvyagel (Zhytomyr region) and the Mriya Lyceum in Irpin (Kyiv region) have also been equipped with solar stations with batteries. Similar projects are planned to be implemented in medical institutions in Kyiv and Chernihiv regions.
